

ORVIA Academy

WHAT YOU WILL RECEIVE · V1.0 · PENDING FOUNDER SIGN-OFF

An Academy engagement is a structured programme, not a one-off training day. It teaches the ORVIA Method as a practical capability that people will use in their real safeguarding, oversight and evidence work — and it is designed to leave a demonstrable change in decision quality behind.

The deliverable

1. A written learning outline

Signed off with your approved signatory before delivery begins.

2. Named lead teacher

One person accountable for the whole programme, matched to the sector.

3. Structured teaching in the ORVIA Method

Observation, Reflection, Visibility, Insight, Accountability — applied to your specific setting.

4. Case-based practice

Real anonymised cases relevant to the learners' sector, not textbook examples.

5. Written assessment of applied practice

Not a certificate mill — a written read of whether learners are actually applying the method.

6. Debrief with commissioning signatory

So the organisation can decide what to embed and what still needs work.

7. What is out of scope

Academy does not confer statutory qualifications or professional registrations.

How it moves

This service follows the ORVIA enquiry journey — every enquiry passes Gate One (suitability), then Gate Two (controlled onboarding) before any evidence is examined. See the How it works page on orvia.org.uk for the full flow.

ORVIA Academy · What you will receive

Every issued document carries a named ORVIA reviewer, a Founder sign-off, a version number and a date. Findings are footnoted to the source material supplied to us.

What this is not

- Not legal representation or legal advice.
- Not a clinical diagnosis or clinical opinion.
- Not a statutory investigation and not a substitute for one.
- Not a guarantee of any particular outcome for a specific person or organisation.
- Not accreditation from a regulator or professional body.

Fees and scope

Fees, timescales and payment terms for this service are set out on the Fees & Scope page and confirmed in writing in your engagement letter before any substantive work begins. Nothing on this document commits either party to a specific fee. Any published pricing is a working guide subject to Gate One review.

Status

This document is a working specification, pending factual sign-off by the ORVIA Founder. It has been drafted with care but no claim in it should be treated as a promise until the signed-off version is issued.
